

University of Arkansas at Little Rock
Children Reporting Information System(CHRIS) Trainer – Monticello / P98288
MidSOUTH

The University of Arkansas at Little Rock, MidSOUTH, the community outreach arm of the UALR School of Social Work, seeks a seeks a Children Reporting Information System (CHRIS) (P98288) trainer for the Monticello training academy. This position will be responsible for providing CHRIS training to the Division of Children and Family Services (DCFS) staff in a classroom setting, labs and in the field. This position will require occasional overnight travel with the possibility of extended overnight stays around the state. The CHRIS trainer is directly responsible to the Regional Team Leader in Monticello. This is a full-time annually renewed grant-funded position. This position is governed by state and federal laws, and agency/institution policy.

Required Education/Experience: Qualifications: Bachelor's degree in social work or a related field; Three (3) years of professional experience with children and families; Minimum of three (3) years experience with CHRIS.

Preferred Education/Experience: Experience as a trainer; Experience in the development of training tools and reference guides; Experience with public child welfare.

Application materials must be submitted through the online application system. Additional information about this position and application requirements are available under the Jobs link on the Human Resources' website at <http://ualr.edu/humanresources/>. Incomplete applications will not be considered.

This position is subject to a pre-employment criminal and sex offender registry background check. A criminal conviction or arrest pending adjudication alone shall not disqualify an applicant in the absence of a relationship to the requirements of the position. Background check information will be used in a confidential, non-discriminatory manner consistent with state and federal law.

The University of Arkansas at Little Rock is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer and actively seeks the candidacy of minorities, women, veterans, and persons with disabilities. Under Arkansas law, all applications are subject to disclosure. Persons hired must have proof of legal authority to work in the United States.